There are also numerous ATM machines in Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City, which accept Master Charge, VISA, and Debit cards, but dispense local currency only. USG travelers on official TDY to Hanoi may also use the Embassy cashier service (opens every business day, 8:30 a.m. to 12 p.m.) for accommodation exchange.

¶5. (SBU) Security Information:

a. (SBU) Vietnamese security personnel may place foreign visitors under surveillance. Hotel rooms, telephone conversations, fax transmissions, and e-mail communications may be monitored, and personal possessions in hotel rooms may be searched.

b. (U) Visitors to Vietnam must exercise appropriate caution and be alert to their surroundings with regard to their personal security.

Cities in Vietnam have the typical crime problems of other large cities throughout the world. Pickpockets and petty crime occur and appear to be increasing; though, violent crimes such as armed robbery are still relatively rare in Vietnam. Drug use is becoming more and more of a problem in Vietnam. The Embassy recommends that travelers use only metered taxis. Traffic in Vietnam can appear chaotic and there is a real threat of being involved in a traffic or pedestrian accident. Pedestrians unaccustomed to walking across the street in Hanoi, HCMC or other Vietnamese cities should be extra cautious.

c. (U) Visitors should also be aware of the State Department's Consular Information sheet for Vietnam and the most recent Worldwide Caution Public Announcements, which are available via the Internet at <http://travel.state.gov>
